

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Iraq\'s unity is in fighting ISIS and the mixing blood of all Iraqis against their first enemy

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed that battle fronts showed the unity of Iraqis against their first enemy ISIS, where blood from the south and west sons and all the provinces mixed without discrimination, indicating that the Iraqis have objectively dealt with voices that have adopted passive circular in terms of accusing everyone with failure or theft and discriminated between the who succeeded and who failed.

\r\n

This came in the sixteenth Ramadan evening at his eminence\'s office in Baghdad Friday, 24.06.2016.

\r\n

His eminence for the annual remembrance of the injury Imam Ali, peace be upon him, indicated that Emir Ali (peace be upon him) had faced several streams, firstly opportunists, and then the hypocrites, and the stream of strict inertial Ahl al-Hadith (people of the traditions of the Prophet (peace be upon him) and conservative traditionalists adherents to Quran and Hadith for reference), the stream of Al-Khawarij (a general term of describing former Muslims, who initially supported the Imamet , then rejected his leadership) and the group that stayed adherent to his approach, pointing out that the stage of the Imamet of Emir Al-Muminin (leader of the believers) witnessed turbulent political times, noting that the Qur\'an addressed Imam in plural, because it was a nation and of a real extension of the project of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), explaining that the Emir Al-Muminin\'s life was connected to the mihrab (the niche of prayers) since birth until martyrdom and had a close relationship with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), indicating that the Imam subjected to a smear and stagger campaign and the formation of public opinion against him even then , people were surprised when they heard that Ali was martyred at the mihrab praying.