

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, attended the funeral of the martyr commander Saleh Alboukhati

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, shared with the believers and Saraya Al-Jihad wa Al-Bina grieving the martyrdom of Sayyid Saleh Alboukhati.

\r\n

This took place at his eminence's attendance to the deceased funeral held in the Al-Zuwiya mosque Saturday, 25.06.2016.

\r\n

His Eminence affirmed that the deceased had a long jihad history since the marshes of the south until the time of the battles with ISIS, indicating that the presence of leaders at the head of battlefronts proves believing in the project and further proof of unity of blood national cohesion of the Iraqi people.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim called to take care of the families martyrs of the popular forces and give them priority in several venues, like governmental employment, scholarships, delegations and so on, indicating that it is the least of what it can be offered to individuals who have lost their lives for the sake of protecting Iraq and its people.