

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim grieves with people of Karrada and attends funerals

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, grieved with the people of Karrada for their losses and attended a number of funerals at some mosques and Husayniyahs. Wednesday, 07/06/2016.

\r\n

His eminence reiterated his call on the need for punishing the criminals, calling for disclosing the circumstances of the incident, noting at the same time that the honorable stands of Karrada and its natives are the reason behind being targeted by the chaotic terrorism.