

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim asserts that the liberation of Fallujah has promoted the stability of the region

During his eminence's meeting with chairman of The Islamic Consultative Assembly Mr. Ali Larijani at the latter's office in Tehran Monday, 11/07/2016, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, praised the position of the Islamic Republic of Iran in supporting Iraq and the people of Iraq, mentioning the important victories that have been achieved against the terrorists and not lastly in Fallujah, and hopes to liberate Mosul in the incoming days, by God willing.

\r\n

During meeting with Larijani his eminence referred to the economic situation in Iraq, affirming that efforts are expended to address the current problems, expressing confidence in a close total victory of Iraq over the terrorists, valuing the stand of all Iraqis, whether they are Shiite or Sunnis or Kurds against terrorism, for there is no way but to cooperate and participate under the name of Iraq in order to establish security and achieve advancement in life.

\r\n

From his part, Mr. Larijani expressed his content to the successes of the iraqi government, the military and the popular forces that are achieving against terrorism, calling for more internal cohesion and unity among Iraq\'s ethnical and sectarian categories and components to establish security and peace.