

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim briefs the grand religious authorities on the latest developments in the political and security situation in Iraq

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met the grand religious authorities in holy Najaf Tuesday, 12.07.2016.

\r\n

his eminence briefed references the grand religious authorities (long live) on developments of the political situation in Iraq and the region and the results of his eminence's visits to Gulf countries and the Islamic Republic of Iran, pointing to the importance of religious authority in Iraq in protecting the Iraqi project and issuing the fatwa of sufficient jihad.