

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim meets with leaders of Ashura Brigades and discusses the battle to liberate Mosul

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, at his office in Baghdad Wednesday 13/7/2016, met leaders of Ashura Brigades after their victorious return from the liberation of Fallujah, stressing the importance of discipline and commitment to religious authority directions and the commands issued by the commander in chief of the armed forces.

\r\n

His Eminence discussed with the leaders of Ashura brigades the victories achieved in Fallujah and the northern of Salahuddin and the incoming battle to liberate Mosul, his eminence stressed the close eradication of the terrorist ISIS, Mosul is the last battle.

\r\n

His Eminence reiterated his emphasis on the importance of popular forces\' participation in Mosul that, because participating in this battle is a national necessity imposed by the city\'s diversity and capacity of the striking power owned popular forces that were gained during experience in the sectors of operations and encountering terrorism.