

During a meeting with the PM Al-Abadi, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim calls to terminate proxy employment at Iraqi administrations and stresses complementing the security progress with political progress

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the importance of ending running Iraqi institutions by proxy employment, noting the importance of assigning authentic managers and chairpersons to the administrations to enable officials to carry out their tasks efficiently, calling to assess the performance of the current acting managers who are running governmental locations in order to determine continuing the services of competent managers and replacing those who do not possess adequate qualifications to be authentic managers.

\r\n

This took place during a meeting between his eminence and Iraqi Prime Minister Mr. Haider Al-Abadi at his eminence's office in Baghdad Monday, 18/7/2016.

\r\n

His Eminence also discuss victories in security aspects that had been achieved by the Iraqi security forces, the Popular Forces and the Iraqi tribes in Fallujah and Anbar , northern Salahuddin, south of Mosul, calling to invest the security progress to resolve political issues and make a historical settlement basing on evaluating the input of each side and their contribution in addressing the political crisis, pointing out that ISIS is no longer a security breach conducting criminal violations, but a political and social fracture that effected the whole body of Iraq and must addressed through solving the causes and fortify the community.

\r\n

Economically, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim stressed during his meeting with Mr. Al-Abadi the importance of benefiting from the harsh lesson representing in the decline in oil prices that have negative impact on Iraq economy, stressing the need to end rentier state status in Iraq by activating other sectors and invest the latter achievement represented in adding Iraq historical sites and marshes to the World Heritage list.

\r\n

Politically, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, stressed the need for cooperation between the legislative and executive authority and work with an integrated spirit to serve to Iraq, indicating the importance of harmony in the parliament that reflects on the government's performance and then on the aspects of the state in general, emphasizing on assembling an unbiased political bloc as the best solution to the reality of Iraq and the true guarantee to represent everyone and smoothly run the matters of the Iraqi state.