

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim renewed demanding Turkey to withdraw its troops from Iraq

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim , chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, renewed his demand to Turkey to withdraw its troops located in Iraq, calling on Turkey to focus on common interests and history ties between the two countries.

\r\n

This took place during His Eminence meeting with Turkey\'s ambassador to Baghdad Mr. Farouk Qamaqchi Wednesday, 27/7/2016.

\r\n

His Eminence discussed with Qamaqchi bilateral relations between the two countries and the political situation in Turkey, stressing the importance of Turkey\'s stability to the stability of the region, calling to give activate law and resort to the Turkish constitution to resolve differences.

\r\n

In respect of the political situation of Iraq and Mosul battle, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim indicated that Iraq is liberating the Iraqi soil from ISIS, and will reach Mosul that will be liberated by Iraqi forces of various different forms, stressing that ISIS had lost its political leverage that was found for, plus that ISIS had lost balance potentials with the security forces and the popular forces and become, the battle had become merely security and intelligence battle.