

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim discusses Mosul battle and development of the political status with Mr. Al-Fayyadh

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received Chief of Homeland Security Mr. Falih Al-Fayyad, at his eminence's office, Baghdad Thursday 4/8/2016.

\r\n

His eminence and Mr. Al-Fayyadh discussed developments of security status, military operations and Mosul battle, as the Mosul battle is the last confrontation with terrorism from military aspects, confirming that the war against ISIS will continue in terms of security and intelligence and require intensive efforts.

\r\n

Regarding the popular forces, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim reiterated welcoming the restructuring of popular forces with the Iraqi security system to protect the popular forces and their sacrifices that had been presented for more than two years while fighting against terrorism.