

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim calls on citizens to update the electoral data preparing for the next democratic practice

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, called citizens to update the electoral data to prepare performing the next democratic practice, noting the importance of updating their data in keeping rights of the Iraqi voter .

\r\n

This took place during his eminence updating his electoral record and information in one of election centers in Karrada district Wednesday 08/10/2016.

\r\n

His eminence reiterated emphasis on conducting the two election rights, \"the provincial councils and parliamentary elections\" on the same time to compress expenses, and considering circumstances\" facts like; humanitarian issues, security , post-ISIS phase and political controversy, that are already present prior and after election practice each time elections are conducted.