

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim receives Mrs. Hanan Fatlawi to discuss means of improving legislative process of the Iraqi House of Representatives

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received chief of the Iradah Movement the Iraqi parliament representative Mrs. Hanan Al-Fatlawi at his Baghdad office, Tuesday 16/8/2016

\r\n

His eminence discussed with Fatlawi; means of improving legislative process of the Iraqi House of Representatives, preparing for the battle of Mosul that requires a political settling in order to enable the security forces to accomplish the final battle with ISIS, noting that the Iraqi House of Representatives made significant steps during the recent period of time through enactment of important laws like; incrimination of Ba'ath party, counter-terrorism law and monitoring the government performance, emphasizing on the importance of political stability to pass the remaining laws.