

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim receives the Ambassador of Germany to discuss developments of war against ISIS and the battle of Mosul

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received German ambassador to Baghdad Mr. Franz Josef Kremp, Tuesday 16/8/2016

\r\n

The topics that were discussed during the meeting covered; development of security situations in Iraq and the region, war against ISIS, his eminence emphasized on the Importance of concerted efforts to eliminate ISIS in Iraq to protect the remaining countries of the world from fighting ISIS on its own soils, expressing his condolence due to the terrorist and security incidents that occurred in a number of Germany cities, describing these incidents as an extension of the terrorism that Iraq is exposed to during 13 years.