

The National Alliance unanimously elected Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim as president for the Alliance

The leadership authority of the Iraqi National Alliance unanimously elected Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, the chairman of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, as president of the Iraqi National Alliance Monday 5/9/2016.

\r\n

This took place at a meeting of the National Alliance chaired by former president Mr. Abraham Jaafari with the attendance of the Prime Minister Mr. Haidar Al-Abadi. The attendants affirmed assembling of a higher committee comprised of the National Alliance affiliated blocs to review the rules of procedure and nominate representatives of the political blocks within the leadership authority of the National Alliance, then they congratulated his eminence of assuming the leadership of the National Alliance confirming to resume work on uniting the lines and maintaining the unity of the National Alliance. His eminence then recieved a flow of pleasant congragulations from political leaderships and ceremonies were resumed led by the President of Iraq Mr. Fu\'ad Masum, the Secretary General of Badr organization Mr. Hadi Al-Ameri, the President Mutahidun bloc Mr. Osama Al-Nujaifi, and the State of Law Coalition indicated that selecting Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim as President of the National Alliance will address the internal problems of the coalition reorganize its course of actions.