

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim receives parliament members of Ninawah province

In efforts working on responding to Mosul battle for being the final confrontation with ISIS that would eliminate ISIS military threat that occupies Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, the leader of the National Alliance, received a number of Ninawah parliament representatives at his Baghdad office Tuesday 6/9/2016.

\r\n

His Eminence and the Ninawah parliament delegation discussed the security and political situation in Iraq and the region, and the battle of Mosul liberation for being an important patriotic battle for Iraq as well as its impact on the region. His Eminence stressed on the necessity of political calmness in order to execute the battle swiftly and with minimal loses in human resources and infrastructure, urging to take into consideration the priorities of the phase that includes the comprehensive political venture, security strategy, restitution of displaced people to their original areas reconstruction of destroyed cities and achieve civil peace, the delegation congratulated Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim for assuming the leadership of the Iraqi National Alliance wishing all the success for his eminence in carrying out his new task being the leader of the largest political bloc.

\r\n