

Kubis: the selection of Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim as the leader of the Iraqi National Alliance is a good message to the Iraqis, their friends and the United Nations

UN representative Mr. Jan Kubis expressed his satisfaction and the satisfaction and the congratulations of the United Nations for selecting Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim as the leader of the Iraqi National Alliance, counting the election of his eminence a good message to the Iraqis, their friends and the UN.

\r\n

Kubis expressed his satisfaction over his visit to Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, at his eminence office in Baghdad Thursday, 08/09/2016.

\r\n

UN representative expressed the willingness of the international organization to provide aid, assistance and support at his eminence disposal, especially post-Mosul phase.

\r\n

His eminence explained to Mr. Kubis that the first priority is rebuilding of the Iraqi National Alliance and develop a vision for various issues related to the management of the country to launch a unified national vision, and that the unified vision is a must for the strength of the political process and produce a strong government. Indicating that institutionalizing Iraqi National Alliance does not interfere with working and advocating the unbiased political bloc, and it is important to transit from spontaneous political action to deliberate political action.