

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: there will be no solution for the Iraqi crisis unless with civil peace and historical settlement

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim shouldered civic leaderships and Iraqi elites the responsibility of preparing the atmospheres for a historical settlement, and stressed resorting to civil peace as it is a condition to end the crisis in Iraq.

\r\n

this took place in Baghdad Dewan for elites and efficient unions and careers elites at his eminence office in Baghdad Saturday 24/9/2016

\r\n

His Eminence indicated that the reason of crises and the conversion of terrorism from one form to another is the inability to make courageous decisions that achieve social harmony, expressing his regrets for the lack of politicians who would take similar steps in that direction fearing from losing political position or political projection, affirming the the highest level of peace requires concessions, bearing losses and favoring public interests over personal interests, pointing out to the youth nature of the Iraqi society that will assist in a historical settlement because they haven't lived the previous experience or they lived it, but without all of its details.

\r\n

His eminence indicated that the priorities of the current phase are; the comprehensive political venture, security strategy, the humanitarian crisis, civil peace, restitution of displaced people to their original areas, restructuring of the state , ending the red tape and bureaucracy, creating work opportunities other than governmental employment through activating investments and converting the economic and agricultural challenges to a chance for creativity, ending proxy employment and to present efficient individuals through clear and transparent channels.

\r\n

Head of the Iraqi National Alliance pointed out the Iraqi National Alliance's vision and means of institutionalizing it, indicating that work is on progress to reinstate all powers associated to the Iraqi National Alliance in meetings and unifying visions, counting increased dialogues a condition to unifying the vision plus holding meetings the general authority, political committee the leadership authority based on specific agendas and schedules. His eminence also indicated the importance of preparing a new internal system for the Iraqi National Alliance, and working on activating nine cases including; legislation, administration, media, the public pacifism, Iraqi National Alliance integration with the popular forces, regional and international relations, affirming his optimistic feelings that everyone are sensing the challenges of the phase, pointing that the unity of the Iraqi National Alliance is the unity of the country.

\r\n

In respect of the battle of Mosul, his eminence stated &it is important to give attention to how fast Shurqat and Gayyarah were liberated &, emphasizing that the fast liberation does not decrease the importance of the efforts spent, but it could be a trap to hasten Mosul liberation, calling not to rush and deploy ministries to the liberated areas in order to insure the poeple and that Daesh are hindering the arrival of services to occupied areas.