

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim stresses the importance of art investment to intellectually encounter Daesh

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, indicated artists urged facing Daesh intellectually, explaining the importance of art in the life of peoples and its permanent association and manifestation with civilization, this took place during his eminence meeting with a gathering of artists and filmmakers participating in the film festival in Baghdad Tuesday, 27/09/2016. His eminence pointed out that some of art details are preferred to be used in treatment, because art can reach closer to the hearts and minds of the people.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim facing Daesh intellectually are the hardest to prevent the return of terrorism under new titles, stressing that art is a message of life if it is characterized by a noble goal, pointing to the freedom of the artist in addressing resolutions is the contrary of politicians who are under the political power struggle and jostling.

\r\n

His eminence called to focus on pros, stressing that messages of life in Iraq are many and and great, and the sectarianism in Iraq is a political sectarianism and does not exist in our society, citing that thirty percent of Iraqi marriages are intersects, counting popular forces participation in the liberalization of western cities is the summit of patriotism in the defense of the land and the liberation of the sons from the terrorist Daesh