

In the second evening of Muharram .. Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: insight is the key to face the challenges

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, considered insights a key and an approach to face the challenges, noting that the insightful persons are determined for righteousness and rightful arguments.

\r\n

This took place in the second evening of the month of Muharram hosted by the office of his eminence Monday 03/10/2016

\r\n

His eminence stated that insightful persons distinguish between extraneous projects and original projects, stressing that an individual need to resort to the people with insights who are able to distinguish right and the defenders of the divine project, stressing that insightful persons always are rivals to tyrants and oppressors, because those insightful persons know of the outcomes of situations and do not arbitrarily act and are open to everyone.