

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: insightful persons have wisdom and do not get confused to issues

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, emphasized that insightful persons are characterized of wisdom in making decisions and selecting the reformist project, noting that wisdom was the virtue of the message couriers of Imam Hussein (peace be upon him) .

\r\n

This took place at the fifth evening of the month of Muharram hosted at his eminence office in Baghdad Thursday, 6.10.2016.

\r\n

His Eminence indicated that the project of Imam Hussein (peace be upon him) had the advantage of having means which are derived from the nature of goals, and the nation had to be shocked to be awakened of its slumber, Imam Hussein (peace be upon him) and his project and renaissance was the best shock to the community, stressing the importance of Hussein's rituals for its higher contexts in self discipline which is complementary to the rest of the rituals that aims to reach self discipline and attract worshippers to God .