

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: patience of Iraqis has limits to the statements and escalations of Turks towards Iraq

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, warned the impatience of Iraqis towards escalations and statements of the Turkish side toward Iraq and constant interference in Iraqi affairs, his eminence addressed anyone who wants to interfere in Iraqi affairs or impose its will by saying \"wrongful and a confused who thinks Iraq is weak, Iraq is strong by its components and his men who will not spare any effort to defend the security of the homeland and its sovereignty.\"

\r\n

This took place during the sixth evening of the month of Muharram, at Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim office Friday, 07.10.2016.

\r\n

His eminence indicated that Mosul is characterized of Iraqi diversity, and who sees Mosul as a Sunni province, will be faced with objections expressed by Sunnis themselves before the Shiites, hoping to build the best relations with neighboring Turkey, stressing the right of Iraq alone, and no other than Iraq, to determine who would participate in the battle to liberate Mosul, indicating that Turkey\'s stand had provoked the feelings of Iraqis, hoping that Turkey reconsider and withdraw the troops from Iraqi soil out of good-neighborliness and because Iraq and Turkey have many mutual interests, including the magnitude of trade with Iraq.