

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Insightful persons have trust in God and that their supplications will be answered

As part of discussing insightfulness in the tenth evening of the month of Muharram in his eminence\'s office in Baghdad Tuesday, 11.10.2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, affirmed that of insightful persons\' characteristics are their trust in Almighty God and that their supplications are answered.

\r\n

His eminence explained that answering supplications have conditions, including praying God in good times and bad times and humility in the sense that their relationship with God is not self-interest relationship, pointing to the need to read the holy Quran with cogitation and comprehending, stressing that universal facts prove that the universe is managed by a higher power, and insightful persons know God through his creations and the system that controls the universe .