

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim praises the historical role of the Al Fatla tribe in responding to the call of the Religious Authority

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, in his office in Baghdad recieved a number of elders and tribal figures of the Iraqi tribe Al Fatla Monday, 17/10/2016.

\r\n

His Eminence praised the role of Iraqi tribes in protecting the national project and defend the holy sites, pointing to the role played by the families associated to the Al Fatla tribe during the 1920 revolution, as well as the role of tribe members that responded to the sufficient jihad call issued by the Religious Authority against Daesh, reminding of the deep relationship between the Religious Authority and tribes since the Sayyid Mohsen Hakim (sanctify his soul).

\r\n

His eminence indicated that Iraq is close to be out of the bottleneck, and today operations are launched for the liberalization of Mosul from terrorist Daesh, at which it is a military confrontation and then the challenge will be the security.