Head of the Iraqi National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visits wounded soldiers and Peshmerga fighters hospitalized in Erbil

Head of the Iraqi National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited wounded Iraqi Army soldiers and the Peshmerga fighters hospitalized in Erbil for being injured during the ongoing Mosul Offensive.

\r\n

His Eminence while his visits to wounded fighters who fought to retake the Iraqi soil from terrorist Daesh groups Wednesday, 26/10/2016, praised the high spirit of wounded soldiers and fighters, noting that their determination is an impeccable evidence that the Iraqis are victorious and will face terrorism and rebuild their country.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim emphasized that seeing wounded people of different affiliations is a proof that Iraqis are united in the face of terrorism and they are all targeted by terrorism, in spite of the difficult economic situation of Iraq, calling to provide more care on a specialized and institutionalized level to include a more broad and more integrated provision of services.

\r\n