

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: We are working to restore confidence between the components of the Iraqi community and the political powers in accordance with the inclusive political project

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance, stressed the importance of restoring confidence between the components of the Iraqi community and the political powers in accordance with the inclusive political project, noting the importance of focusing on achievements and the pros, cons are part of the reality and not all the reality.

\r\n

This took place during a meeting at the third conference of the Arab Committee of International Arbitration that is held for the first time at his eminence's office in Baghdad Saturday, 10.29.2016.

\r\n

His eminence praised efforts of Arab Committee of International Arbitration because of its importance to conflict mediation and training of Arab cadres on similar issues, pointing out that Iraq is living a stage of political gain through regaining of the people and the support of the Iraqi people to the elected government, stressing that some of the media are trying to suggest a melancholy image on Iraq issues to the recipients , but in reality Iraq nowadays is immune from terrorist ideologies, while other countries are more likely to be afflicted by terrorism thoughts , pointing to the military victory achieved, the defeat of the Daesh from the walls of Baghdad to Mosul, the northern city of Iraq, 500 kilometers from Baghdad, and this has been accomplished by the participation of everyone including the Iraqi army and police, popular mobilization forces, tribal forces and Peshmerga, stressing by saying, \"if the popular mobilization forces were a sectarian group, as advertised, they would hold at the borders of their cities and then build defensive lines leaving the remaining cities to suffer from Daesh, but in fact the popular mobilization forces shouldered the responsibility and shed blood to liberate the cities of Iraq.\"