

Iraqi National Alliance: are committed to the constitutional text on dual citizenship of leadership and high level security positions

The political authority of the Iraqi National Alliance held its regular meeting under the chairmanship of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi National Alliance ..

\r\n

The meeting agenda covered several national issues on security and legislative levels, as well as completing the institutional structure of the Iraqi National Alliance.

\r\n

Attendees reviewed a detailed report presented by the President of the Supreme Commission for Popular Mobilization Forces, the report covered the great victories achieved by the Iraqi armed forces, the popular mobilization forces, tribal forces and Peshmerga in Nineveh province, and the rapid advances on battlegrounds and clearing Daesh gangs from the areas where confrontations are taking place.

\r\n

The Iraqi National Alliance, congratulated these great triumphs and called on Iraqis to unite to support the security forces in their crucial battle.

\r\n

The political authority of the Iraqi National Alliance discussed draft rules of procedure of the Iraqi National Alliance, which was unanimously approved and on all suggested clauses, plus following up the completion of the formation of the nine authority files emanating from the Iraqi National Alliance.

\r\n

Additionally, all attendees unanimously agreed on commitment to the the constitutional text pertaining the dual citizenship for leadership and high level security positions.

\r\n

The Iraqi National Alliance condemned the false accusations and abuses, which affected a number of religious and national figures, urging to commitment to the Constitution and legislative contexts to express opinions and avoid projection and fabrications.