

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for coexistence and reject violence and subjection in Iraq

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the head of the National Reconciliation Committee of the Iraqi House of Representatives Mr. Hisham al-Suhail, discussed the political settlement bill and mechanisms of its execution after the announcement of Daesh defeat, at his eminence office, Baghdad, Saturday, 11/5/2016

\r\n

His eminence emphasized that the National Iraqi Alliance as the largest parliamentary bloc is preparing to submit an important national settlement document that represent an inclusive political project for Iraqis in conjunction with the liberalization of the city of Mosul, explaining that it will be a comprehensive political project simultaneously occurring with the military victory.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called for coexistence in Iraq, and to reject violence, subjection, resetting crises , and to commit to the unity of Iraq\'s soil, people and democratic system and to reject division under any circumstances, also stressed the need to abide to the constitution of Iraq.