

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discuss means to strengthen relations with South Korea

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Korean ambassador to Iraq, discussed strengthening and means of furthering relations between the two friendly countries and the contribution of Korean companies to invest in Iraq.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence meeting with south Korean Ambassador to Iraq Mr. Sung Wong Jupp in his office in Baghdad on Monday, 11/07/2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called to benefit from Korean expertise in construction and reconstruction, and to support Iraq in its war against terrorism, stressing that Iraq is seeking to strengthen bilateral relations between the two countries.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance expressed his appreciation to the positive attitude of South Korea in providing support and assistance to the people and Government of Iraq. The meeting also reviewed the developments of the ongoing liberalization of Mosul battles, and victories achieved by all Iraqi forces on the terrorist factions of Daesh.