

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim joins millions of pilgrims heading from Maysan province towards Karbala

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Tuesday, 11/08/2016, arrived to Maysan province to join millions of pilgrims walking towards Karbala to perform rituals of commemorating Arba\`een of Imam Husain (peace be upon him).

\r\n

His eminence visited Hosseini\'s corteges deployed along the road to the city of Karbala, praying God to \\'Keep Iraq and its people from harm and support the security forces and popular mobilization forces as they are engaged in a battle of existence against terrorism on behalf of the world.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called the media to intensify covering Arba\`een rituals of Imam Husain (peace be upon him) and broadcast to reach the entire world, stressing that the most significant messages that indicate responding the call "Here I am oh Hussein" is consistency and presence in the battlefields.