

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Turkmen delegation discussing consolidation of civil peace and preserving the unity of Kirkuk

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met Turkmen delegation in his office in Baghdad on Thursday, 10/11/2016. His eminence urged to unify efforts and stands in confronting the terrorist factions of Daesh , stressing the need of everyone's support in consolidation of civil peace , the preservation the identity of Kirkuk and the unity of its components, to secure peaceful coexistence, and protect the rights of all without discrimination.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, reviewed with the delegation the latest developments of Mosul Offensive, and urged security sides to take caution, and to activate intelligence effort.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim received input by the Turkmen delegation, and stressed saving no efforts to solve all the problems that hinder peaceful coexistence in Kirkuk province.