

The National Iraqi Alliance praises for the victories achieved in We Are Coming, Nineveh operations and announces the start of the ten committees

The National Iraqi Alliance praised the victories that have been achieved during the We Are Coming, Nineveh operations that resulted in the liberalization of large parts of the lands controlled by terrorist factions of Daesh in Nineveh province, asking all Iraqi patriotic powers to stand by the Iraqi forces including; Iraqi army and police and popular mobilization forces, Peshmerga and the tribes in order to achieve the final victory and liberate the entire province of Nineveh.

\r\n

This took place during meeting of the National Iraqi Alliance, held Sunday evening, 27/11/2016, headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim. The meeting's discussions covered several national issues on the security and legislative levels, as well as finalizing the institutional structure of the National Iraqi Alliance.

\r\n

The participants endorsed the rules of procedure governing the work of the National Iraqi Alliance that will transfer it to a functioning national institution considering being the largest political bloc in Iraq, stressing on the unity of the National Iraqi Alliance. Additionally, the start of the National Iraqi Alliance's ten committees were announced, these committees were discussed in previous meetings and now are ready to work.

\r\n

The National Iraqi Alliance also praised the enactment of the Popular Mobilization Forces Act that will organize the work of the popular mobilization forces under the supervision of the Commander in Chief of the armed forces and will do justice for those who had responded the call to defend the homeland, this law will guarantee the rights of its affiliates and organize their work.