

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim : The Palestinian cause will remain a central cause of all Muslims

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim affirmed that The Palestinian cause will remain a central cause of all Muslims, and Palestinian people will continue the struggle to retake their rights. This was published on his eminence Facebook page for the occasion of the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People, Tuesday 29/11/2016.

\r\n

His eminence added that since the famous Balfour Declaration and the Palestinian people are suffering from the woes and misfortunes after being violated by the usurper Zionist entity. His eminence indicated that celebrating the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People, represents an important occasion as a reminder of the plight of the oppressed Palestinian people, pointing out that the Palestinian cause is the biggest concern of the international community, adding and after all this time of the Palestinians\' catastrophe, we still watch the Zionist usurper poring abuse to this people and insist not to recognize their right to return to their lands calling on the peace-loving countries, to act strongly and consistently return the usurped rights.