

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance headed by Ammar al-Hakim discussed We Are Coming, Nineveh operations and the implementation of the national settlement bill

The meeting of Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance discussed developments of the We Are Coming, Nineveh military operations and the successive victories achieved by Iraqi military forces stationed at battlefronts, as well as to discuss the announcement of the national settlement bill and to begin its implementation.

\r\n

The meeting was held under the chairmanship of Head of National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim at his office Saturday, 03.12.2016. The meeting covered the most significant security, political and economic developments in Iraq, also the internal procedures of the National Iraqi Alliance and the formation of its ten committees.

\r\n

The attendees stressed the importance of working on institutionalizing the National Iraqi Alliance and unifying its vision through intensifying dialogue, affirming optimistic atmosphere among members, because all are aware and ready to face the challenges of the next phase.

\r\n

The meeting also deliberated means of coordination between the decisions of the National Iraqi Alliance and the decisions of the government, working to promote the work of the Iraqi House of Representatives in order to serve the welfare of the citizens.

\r\n

The conferees discussed the varying responses towards the enactment of the Popular Mobilization Forces Act and the implications of this action, urging to mend the relationship with the partners faithful to the political process.