

Presiding the central shura council meeting, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim : National Iraqi Alliance has become a coherent institution and the Popular Mobilization Forces Act passed by a majority of two-thirds

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraqi confirmed that the National Iraqi Alliance has become a cohesive institution, especially after passing the Popular Mobilization Forces Act by the majority of two-thirds of members of the Iraqi House of Representatives, stressing that many of crucial issues that concern the Iraqi populace are agreed upon within the three authorities of the National Iraqi Alliance, including the national settlement bill, pointing out that this project was approved after extensive discussions within the three authorities, noting that it will achieve the integration of homeland parties in gains as well in challenges, provide security, and cut resources of terrorism, stressing on not negotiating with criminals and those who have blood of Iraqis on their hands.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim chairing the meeting of the Central Shura Council of the Al-Mihrab Martyr Movement Monday, 05/12/2016, indicated that the United Nations adopted to work on promoting for the national settlement bill locally and regionally.

\r\n

The meeting also reviewed the developments of We Are Coming, Ninawa operations, stressing the need for tactical changes in the current combating strategies.

\r\n

His Eminence called on that Ghadeer Day is to be regarded as public holiday similar to other religious occasions holidays, and to be sanctioned in the constitution and urging the Iraqi House of Representatives to approve passing this act in the upcoming parliamentary legislative session.