

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the National Iraqi Alliance, receives Prime Minister Mr. Haider al-Abbadi

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discussed with the Prime Minister the latest political and security developments and outcomes of We Are Coming, Nineveh military operations and provide services to cities that have been retaken after the defeat of the terrorist factions of Daesh.

\r\n

This took place in his eminence meeting with Prime Minister Mr. Haider al-Abadi, the meeting covered several important issues Friday, 9.12. 2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim conferred with Mr. Abadi, the institutionalization of the National Iraqi Alliance and its contribution in supporting the government and building the National Iraqi Alliance on sound basis and work on its unification, plus activation its relations with other national blocs, and the need to move away from political and personal controversies that negatively affect the provision of services to citizen, and emphasis on moving forward with reforms and fight corruption.

\r\n

Additionally, the recent visit to Jordan was reviewed, the visit was conducted by his eminence with a delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance to the Kingdom of Jordan, his eminence indicated that meetings included the shape of the relationship between Iraq and Jordan, and its role in removing barriers with Arab countries, the belief in the political project in Iraq and support from the countries of the region to Iraq's war against terrorist factions of Daesh.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed on the importance of unity to face the challenges in the country, calling for the highest degree of coordination between the security forces, the popular mobilization forces, tribal forces and the Peshmerga in the face of Daesh gangs.