

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, with his Excellency Prime Minister Mr. Haidar al-Abadi to discuss crucial governmental reforms and the fight against corruption

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Prime Minister Mr. Haider al-Abadi, discussed critical reforms and the fight against corruption and building the state on the basis of sound methodology serving citizenship among the Iraqi people.

\r\n

This took place during a meeting with Prime Minister his Excellency Mr. Haidar al-Abbadi Saturday, 17.12. 2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim conferred with al-Abadi the political stability that follows the victories achieved after defeating the terrorist cliques of Daesh, stressing that the firmness in the face of Takfir and the forces of darkness and the flexibility in dialogue are the best means to remove doubts among the components of the Iraqi people.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discussed the results of the visit to Tehran and meeting with the Supreme Leader Imam Khamenei and President of the Republic of Iran plus a number of Iranian officials, indicating that Iranian officials and leaders greatly welcomed the National Settlement Bill for being a comprehensive and reassuring political project to all components of the Iraqi people, and will achieve political and social stability in the country.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance hearkened to developments of We Are Coming, Nineveh operations and the remarkable progress of the military forces, noting that tidings of victory are close after the defeat of Daesh.