

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, calls to honor the martyrs of science, the students and professors of Iraqi universities by honorary certificates

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called to honor the martyrs of science, students of universities with honorary certificates, praising the significant role of Iraqi universities' professors and students in the delivering education and knowledge during the critical situations that faces the country.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence's speech at the celebration of hosted by the University of Baghdad, marking the birth of Prophet Mohammad and the birth of Imam Sadiq peace be upon him Sunday, 18/12/2016.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the country\'s need for the efforts of all its citizens in order to achieve victory over the forces of infidelity and darkness, congratulating the gathered celebrators of the birth of Prophet Mohammad, noting that the approach of the Great Prophet Muhammad and his noble family peace be upon them, is the approach of unity, peace and synergy and love.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim touched the great victories achieved by the sons of the Iraqi military forces in the We Are Coming, Nineveh operations and the defeats of the terrorist cliques of Daesh, stressing the need to complement this victory with a comprehensive political project to all the Iraqi components that eliminates any suggestions for disintegration and division.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance pointed out that the National Settlement Bill will not include who are incongruent to the reality of Iraq, and the project represents a realistic vision of state-building in the post-Daesh phase.