

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, praises victories achieved by Iraqi military in We Are Coming, Nineveh operations

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, praised the great victories achieved by the Iraqi security forces including the Iraqi army and Iraqi federal police, the popular mobilization forces, tribal forces and Peshmerga who are engaged in the battle to liberate the province of Nineveh, calling to mind the humanitarian conditions of natives and displaced families at areas of operations.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence\'s meeting with Deputy Chief of the popular mobilization forces committee Haj Abu Mahdi al- Mohandis Thursday, 22.12.2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discussed the course of the ongoing liberalization military operations of Mosul, stressing the need to support the popular mobilization forces as the striking force of Iraq, calling for supporting the popular mobilization forces and provide material and moral requirements, especially after the adopting a special law regulating its course of action and preserve the rights of its fighters. His eminence appreciated the role of volunteers who responded the call of the Religious Authority for the defense of the homeland and the holy places.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called to provide care for the families of martyrs who had sacrificed their blood and securing the Iraqi project, as well as the need to give the fighters highest level of care and follow up their on their conditions after they heal, praising the spirit of the popular mobilization forces affiliates which has become a pride for all righteous people in the world.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim pointed out that the military project alone is not enough to eliminate the cliques of terrorism and restore stability to the country, noting that the National Iraqi Alliance presented a project for national settlement that coincides with the military victories to save the blood of Iraqis and beseech political and social stability of the country.