

National Iraqi Alliance delegation led by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim inform the great religious authority about the document of National Settlement Bill and the position of the political powers

The National Iraqi Alliance delegation led by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, informed the great religious references (may God protect them) about the National Settlement Bill document adopted by the National Iraqi Alliance and presented to all political powers representing all components of Iraq.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, indicated that the document of the National Settlement Bill is for all Iraqis, and is a strategic choice for the post-Daesh phase, to save Iraq from political and security crises, stressing that the settlement has outputs which are; security and the provision of community integration and regional integration, calling on everyone to enrich the document with their inputs and take roles as it is a historic project that needs adopting and support of everyone.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out to the victories achieved by the security forces on Daesh, valuing the position of religious authority that protected Iraq and the Iraqi project through declaring sufficient jihad against Daesh terrorists, indicating the near military takeover, but a security challenge remains, which requires accompanying security progress with a progress at the political level to go along with and support the security progress.