

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance discuss victories in Nineveh province and to work for the success of the National Settlement Bill in accordance with the Constitution and national constants

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance under the chairmanship of head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, held its regular meeting at his eminence's office in Baghdad Saturday 7/1/2017. Meeting subjects covered overall security and political developments in Iraq and the region.

\r\n

Attendees discussed the security situation and victories achieved by the Iraqi security forces on Daesh in the battle of Mosul, as well as discuss the terrorist acts which affected innocent people in residential neighborhoods, while stressing on selecting efficient security elements and as quickly as possible.

\r\n

Attendees affirmed to continue the path initiated by the National Iraqi Alliance working on the National Settlement Bill and bear full responsibility for it before the people, in all of its details, timing and success in accordance with the Constitution and national constants, indicating the importance of national, regional and international meetings, and to remove all obstacles and doubts facing the settlement, additionally, the conferees were briefed on action reports regarding the National Iraqi Alliance's committees and its institutional action.