

National Iraqi Alliance delegation calls for coupling work between the local government of Maysan and the university of Maysan to finalize service and development projects

The National Iraqi Alliance delegation, headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in their visit to Maysan province, called to engage the work between the legislative and executive administration of Maysan province with the University of Maysan to finalize service and development projects, pointing to the importance of implementing the theoretical scientific and technical plans
Tuesday, 31.01.2017

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim indicated that paying attention to the university, science and scientists is one of the priorities and an important issue that should not be put second, stressing the need to take advantage of great scientific expertise of the University of Maysan and benefit from the competencies Maysan province faculty and alumni, pointing out that there are challenges to invest in Iraqi thinkers and find means for resource management and the collection of scattered thoughts.

\r\n

In respect of Maysan province status, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed the importance of placing a tourism university in the university of Maysan in line with the tourism potentials of the province and the marshes area which is on the World Heritage List, as well as developing cadres and workers to make them on a professional level, in order to succeed over other companies, plus pointing to the National Iraqi Alliance need for scientific expertise, putting the potentials of the National Iraqi Alliance at the disposal of projects and advice submitted by qualified sides to serve Iraq.