

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim meets with heads of administrative units and directors of security and service departments in Maysan province

During his eminence meeting with the heads of administrative units and directors of security and service departments in Maysan province, head of the National Iraqi Alliance, SAyyid Ammar al-Hakim, urged to keep the services case file away from political conflicts and disagreements, noting the need for raising the slogan of service and integrity Tuesday, 31.01.2017.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stated \"The province is already safe so the security issue is not an excuse to not providing services, calling for the need of self-reliance, openness, invest opportunities and tourist sites in the province to increase resources,\" stressing that the opportunity is reachable, but what is lacking is to be optimally invested, in which serves the province and maximize income.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim reiterated his call to fend off partisan prejudice and affiliations when dealing with the subject of service for all, asking everyone to be up to the responsibility and appear as statesmen, praising the experience of the governor of Maysan who played the role of a serving administrator.