

The National Iraqi Alliance delegation meets with representatives of the Popular Mobilization Forces and political entities to discuss security challenges and the national settlement

The National Iraqi Alliance delegation, headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with the representatives of Popular Mobilization Forces and political parties and entities in Dhi Qar province Wednesday, 1/2/2017.

\r\n

The conferees discussed the national settlement and post-Daesh phase, counting the national settlement as the best solution to accompany the military achievements with a reassuring political project that protects the rights of all.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim warned of continuing projection policy that make everyone lose, noting that there are those who work on amplifying gaps to bring down everyone.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of communicating with citizens shouldering leaders of political parties the responsibility to communicate with people and to clarify some of the concepts and restore public confidence in the political powers.

\r\n

in respect of the national settlement, his eminence reiterated the contentedness of the National Iraqi Alliance in the national settlement as the only option to save Iraq during the post-Daesh stage, stressing the importance to carry out the national settlement with its pivots, outputs and with Iraqi guarantees.