

National Iraqi Alliance delegation visits displaced people in Depkh camps in Mosul

National Iraqi Alliance delegation, led by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, visited displaced people camps in Depkh in Mosul and perceived their conditions Sunday, 05/02/2017.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called for concerted efforts in order to mitigate the suffering of the displaced people considering the current cold weather, stressing that victory is imminent, and resettlement of people is a top priority after clearing the city from terrorist Daesh and clearing the IEDs, booby-trapped streets to restore basic life requirements to the city.

\r\n

His eminence called on international organizations to intensify efforts to ease the suffering of displaced people calling on the international community to assume its responsibilities for the reconstruction of the cities, as Iraq is fighting a war on behalf of the world, and the security of the world's cities starts by eliminating Daesh in Mosul.