

National Iraqi Alliance delegation visit wounded individuals of the We Are Coming Ninawah military operation in hospitals, Erbil

National Iraqi Alliance delegation led by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim the wounded individuals during We Are Coming Ninawah military operations in hospitals, Erbil Sunday 5/2/2017.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim praised the health care provided by the Kurdistan Region hospitals for the wounded security forces, calling for more cooperation between the Ministry of Health in Baghdad and the Ministry of health of Kurdistan region, praying Almighty Allah to bless the wounded a speedy recovery. His eminence stressed on the imminent liberation of the right bank of Mosul, and the announcement of the final victory over the criminal Daesh to work on the resettlement of the displaced families to their areas, and contribute to the construction of their city.

