

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Kuwaiti ambassador to discuss the bilateral relations between the two countries and supporting Iraq in the face of Daesh

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received

\r\n

Ambassador of Kuwait to Baghdad, Mr. Salim Ghassab Zamanan Thursday, 16.02.2017.

\r\n

His eminence and Zamanan discussed bilateral political and economic relations between Iraq and Kuwait, his eminence stressed Iraq\'s need to the support from neighboring countries in the face of terrorism, noting that the new Iraq is open to everyone and is seeking to establish better relations with the countries of the region and the world, and in particular neighboring countries.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of concerted efforts to confront Daesh intellectually, pointing out that facing Daesh militarily is part of the confrontation that require a bundle of solutions including the intellectual, economic and political confrontations.

\r\n

in respect of the national settlement and the Iraqi political facts, his eminence explained that Iraq is on the verge of strengthening the foundations of democracy in Iraq and consolidating the political system, here the national settlement arise as the only solution to save Iraq from its political and military crises, stressing the importance of receiving the support from neighboring countries to the project, which will have a positive impact on everyone, because the stability of Iraq will reflect on the stability of the region and if Iraq is not stable it will have a negative impact to the region, pointing out that Iraq has its own weight, significance and history, and Iraq should retake its historic and strategic roles in the region and the world.