

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance under the chairmanship of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim holds a meeting to discuss developments of We Are Coming, Nineveh Battle and liberating the right bank of the Mosul

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance under the chairmanship of head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, held a broadened meeting in his eminence office in Baghdad Tuesday, 03.07.2017.

\r\n

The conferees discussed the most prominent and urgent cases in the Iraqi situation, and most important issue is developments of We Are Coming, Nineveh Battle and complete the liberation of the right bank of Mosul and the liberalization of the government compound area the most important area in Mosul city. Discussions also covered elections of provincial council, age of candidacy and number of seats, as well as elections of districts and precincts and the elections law submitted by the presidency of the Republic of Iraq. The conferees called to settle the issue of Presidency Experts Committee to select members of the electoral commission to prepare assembling the electoral commission based of the Constitution.

\r\n

\r\n

The conferees discussed a number of unfortunate events in the provinces and that occurred during the visit of the Prime Minister, the events violated compliance to legal guidelines and keeping the prestige of the state, calling the government to take strict measures to enforce the rule of law and address any attempt to destabilize security that can present a portal for Daesh after Daesh had lost territories in Mosul, stressing on freedom of speech and the constitutional freedom to conduct demonstrations along with approved regulations and laws.

\r\n

The third case which was raised in the meeting was the interrogations and the importance of professionalism during practicing the interrogations and meeting legal requirements, calling the necessity to keep the interrogations away from political targeting. The fourth subject was the national settlement and the possibility of announcing it with the liberation of the right bank of Mosul.