

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Parliament Speaker and Second deputy Parliament Speaker, to discuss enactment of important laws that directly seek the concerns of citizens

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, at the headquarters of the National Iraqi Alliance in the Iraqi House of Representatives met Parliament Speaker Mr. Salim al-Jubouri and Second deputy Parliament Speaker Mr. Aram al-Sheikh Mohamad Sunday, 12/03/2017.

\r\n

His eminence discussed with al-Sheikh and al-Jubouri inactive laws in the Iraqi House of Representatives particularly the laws that directly seek the citizens and laws that seek the structure of the state, calling for synergy between the political blocs in order to pass these laws.

\r\n

His eminence upon his arrival to the headquarters of the Iraqi House of Representatives to attend a ceremony marking the international women's day, held a meeting with the heads of political blocs affiliated to the National Iraqi Alliance, stressing the need to develop a unified vision of the National Iraqi Alliance toward these aforementioned laws and advance the work of the committees formed within the National Iraqi Alliance.

\r\n

His eminence praised the victories achieved by the security forces, calling to study the role of unity factor in achieving victories on terrorist Daesh, indicating that Daesh collapsed structurally and organizationally and had lost grounds, pointing to the need for the intellectual confrontation to terrorist Daesh, which is the most important and the most dangerous.