

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Turkmen delegation headed by Mr. Arshad al-Salihi to discuss developments of political practice and post Daesh phase

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received a delegation from the Turkmen component headed by Member of Parliament Mr. Arshad al-Salihi.

Wednesday, 15.03.2017

\r\n

His eminence with Al-Salhi discussed developments in political practice and security in Iraq and the near end of the military page of Daesh by liberating the right bank of Mosul, His eminence reiterated his vision for the year 2017 as a pivotal year that will anchor democracy in Iraq after a difficult travail suffered by Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of keeping the rights of all Iraqi components in any political project in Iraq, noting that the national settlement put forward by the National Iraqi Alliance was characterized by patriotism only because it included everyone and not a settlement between a side and another but is for all Iraqis.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, indicated that the Iraqis are united against the terrorist Daesh because terrorism is targeting all, calling to confront Daesh intellectually, developmentally and economically.