

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for integration between the University of Muthanna and the local government of Muthanna

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called for an integrated performance between the University of Muthanna and local government of Muthanna, pointing to the importance of the presence of Al-Muthanna province relevant competencies at committees in the provincial council to provide advice and counseling, and indicated the importance of investing nearly seven hundred teachers at the University of Muthanna in scientific and educational domains.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence heading a delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance in Muthanna province and meeting deans, professors and teachers of the University of Muthanna Sunday, 03/19/2017.

\r\n

His Eminence stressed the importance of investment in building human through cementing the educational and pedagogical process and elevating the level of university to meet commendable universities standards, pointing out that the investment in human building human capacity is one of the most important means to face the Takfiri ideology.