

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The world praises the victories of Iraqis and advancement in the battlefield is a pride of all

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, indicated that the victories achieved by Iraqis in the battlefield have become observed by the world with acclaim and pride, counting the victories of Iraqis is a victory for all, because a Daesh threatens humanity and alter his disguise with sectarian, ethnical and political covers.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence heading of a delegation from the National Iraqi Alliance and meeting with the tribal chiefs of Diwaniyah Monday 20/3/2017.

\r\n

His eminence praised the roles played by the Diwaniyya tribes in the modern history of Iraq, facing the dictatorship, confronting terrorism and responding to the call of religious authority, pointing out that the National Iraqi Alliance is the first to be alerted to the post-Daesh phase, thus proposed the national settlement as a road map based on concession of all to all and there are no concessions from one side, warning of efforts of some to keep Iraq soaked in his wounds to prevent regain wellness and leading role, stressing that the unity of the National Iraqi Alliance and its continuation to institutional performance through the specialized committees and the three authorities and its regular meetings.

\r\n

In respect of services reality in Diwaniyya , his eminence pointed to the city's needs and financial resources, stressing that the National Iraqi Alliance made an effort to release the farmers\' payments and noting the positive handling of Prime Minister in this regard, adding \"There are efforts to release contractors\' entitlements to revive the Iraqi economy,\".